

SAM Leaders Professional Learning Program Executive Summary Mid-Year 2016-17

This Executive Summary Report contains an overview and history of the program to give the reader context for the progress described in the SAM LPLP 2016-17 Executive Summary section below. Please contact Kirk Miller if you have questions about this report or the SAM LPLP.

Collaboration, relationship building and networking have created an outstanding opportunity for Montana education administrators to support their professional learning. School Administrators of Montana, the Montana Office of Public Instruction, Governor, Montana University System Ed Leadership Programs, Department of Administration, and individual Montana business partners, working together, launched the SAM Leaders Professional Learning Program (LPLP) in 2013-14! In its fourth year, the new program for 2016-17 combined the research on successes of the SAM 21st Century Leadership Institute and the SAM Mentor Program to provide a unique opportunity for Montana administrators to receive one-on-one mentoring and innovative, focused, personalized, blended professional learning opportunities. Since inception, the SAM LPLP has served to improve professional learning for nearly 200 district and school administrators in our state!

Overview and History

What is the SAM LPLP?

- An innovative approach to professional learning for Montana education administrators.
- A combination of the SAM Mentor Program and the SAM 21st Century Leadership Institute, the SAM Leaders Professional Learning Program is unlike any program available today.
- SAM, the Montana Office of Public Instruction, Montana University System Ed Leadership Programs, the Department of Administration and individual Montana business partners have worked together to support a cost effective model for Montana's school administrators to participate in this innovative professional learning opportunity.
- You can review the program details at <http://www.sammt.org/leaders-professional-learning-program>

Why do we need the SAM LPLP?

- Montana has had over 100 administrative positions open each spring of 2014 - 2016, so there are 300+ administrators new to their positions in our schools over the past 3 years.
- Research and common sense reveal that mentoring is a major key to building leadership capacity and those who are mentored exhibit greater success and retention than those who are not.
- Montana administrators are committed to their school and community and there are ever increasing demands on their time to meet the needs. Professional learning is an area that gets placed on the back burner when it should be up front for effective problem solving.
- Research and common sense show that the most powerful professional learning is inquiry-based, aligned to real-world applications, and embedded in the work environment.

So how did the SAM LPLP happen?

- SAM strategic plan goals for professional development led to seeking innovative ways to meet the professional learning needs of Montana administrators.
- Seeking innovation led to great people working in this environment –
 - Godfrey Saunders for mentoring

- Tom Unwin for innovative, project-based learning
- A year of research and project development led to launching a pilot Mentor Program and 21st Century Leadership Institute (21 CLI) in 2013-14.
- Those administrators participating in the pilot programs provided great insight for creating the LPLP.
- Lessons learned from the LPLP 2013-14 were incorporated into the SAM LPLP 2014-15 and 2015-16 years. During these program years, providers successfully worked with 72 Montana school administrators (34 Mentees and 38 21 CLI Members) in 2014-15 and 54 Montana school administrators (37 Mentees and 18 21 CLI Members) in 2015-16. Review the success of these program years in the following summaries: SAM LPLP 2014-15 Executive Summary and SAM LPLP 2015-16 Executive Summary.

Putting Lessons Learned into Action

- Seek highly qualified Montana administrators who can serve a region of the state as an LPLP Provider. All seven Providers from 2015-16 continued their service to the program in 2016-17. Partner with resource providers to gain access to the best of resources. All previous partners continued with the program.
- Train the LPLP providers so they can connect proteges (mentees) and 21 CLI cohort members to necessary resources in the most effective, efficient ways. Ongoing training for providers happened prior to the SAM Administrators Institute 2015 in July and continues on a regular basis with LPLP Provider Adobe Connect meetings and trainings.
- Build relationships for effective communication so that all involved can learn from each other. A key to the success of the LPLP is the relationship built between the Mentees and 21 CLI Members and their provider.
- Promote the ideas so that Montana administrators will seek to enhance their professional learning.
