

Description of SAM Collegial Learning Networks

1. Trusted Learning Environment (TLE)
 - a. The TLE – Trusted Learning Environments Collegial Learning Network is a group of Montana IT Directors interested in completing a successful application to be accepted as a TLE before the end of this school year – June, 2018.
 - b. Each team member of this Collegial Learning Network has their own personal objectives and each school/district they represent has their own aims and objectives. The overall objective of the group is to share resources and learning around the process to make an application for their district to be approved as a TLE.
2. Social Emotional Learning (SEL)
 - a. The Social and Emotional Learning Collegial Learning Network is a group of district and school leaders dedicated to implementing effective social and emotional learning practices in their schools.
 - b. Each network member has his or her own specific purpose. The common purpose they all share is to improve student learning through the application of social & emotional learning strategies in their classrooms.
3. Personalized Learning (PL)
 - a. The Personalized Learning Collegial Learning Network is a group of district and school leaders dedicated to implementing personalized learning practices in their schools.
 - b. Each team member has their own specific purpose. The common purpose they all share is to improve student learning through the application of personalized learning strategies in classrooms.
4. Special Education (SPED)
 - a. The Special Education Collegial Learning Network is a group of Montana Special Education Directors new to their position interested in networking with other new and experienced directors and dedicated to advancing the success of all children.
 - b. Each team member has their own specific purpose. The common purpose they all share is to improve student learning through the application of policies, procedures, and strategies learned through their networking.
5. Montana Educator Performance Appraisal System (EPAS)
 - a. The Montana EPAS Collegial Learning Network is a group of district and school leaders dedicated to implementing effective performance appraisal practices.
 - b. Each network member has his or her own specific purpose. The common purpose they all share is to improve student learning through effective performance appraisal practices.