

Professional Bio: Tammy Tolleson Knee

Tammy Tolleson Knee is the School Support Liaison for the Montana Safe Schools Center (MSSC) located in the Department of Education at the University of Montana. Tammy coordinates the VAST (Virtually Assisted School Team) program and trains in the areas of standard response protocol, threat assessment and crisis response. Over the last three decades, Tammy has worked as Licensed School Counselor and Licensed Clinical Social Worker in seven K-12 schools.

Professional Bio: Tina Eblen

Tina Eblen is the Montana Safe School Center's Training and Technical Assistance Specialist located in the Department of Education at the University of Montana. She brings to the center a wealth of experience including over eight years of Emergency Management, ten years of Behavioral Health and five years of experience working directly with schools.